

The Anthroposophical Mentality – Spiritual-Scientific View of Life?

Svetoslava Toncheva

(Summary)

The article deals with the problems of the specifics of a particular spiritual view of life (Weltanschauung) – the Anthroposophical mentality. This is model of thinking, created on the basis of Rudolf Steiner’s spiritual-philosophical system, which he calls Anthroposophy, among its followers. Anthroposophy claims to be a “spiritual science” – i.e. introducing the scientific approach into the sphere of the spiritual. The article is an attempt to outline the “anthroposophical” specifics, as well as it tries to show the influence of the acceptance of a definite spiritual system over human’s mentality.
